

I enjoy XM and would like to continue having access to local weather and traffic reports. XM provides me a better variety than broadcast radio; I don't understand why broadcast radio should have a monopoly on local coverage. I receive my local TV channels on cable and satellite - maybe broadcast radio should investigate re-broadcasting through satellite radio.